

Your voice is worth fighting for.

RAISE IT NOW — OR LOSE IT!

Do you want the media to do a better job of covering issues you care about? Do you want more quality journalism? Are you wondering whether a few giant media conglomerates will provide the diverse and independent viewpoints you need?

This fall, the Federal Communications Commission is considering new media ownership rules that may increase the number of newspapers, radio stations and TV stations that one company is allowed to own.

Now is your chance to tell FCC Commissioners Jonathan Adelstein and Michael Copps how well the media are serving your community. Don't miss this opportunity to make your voice heard!

Town Meeting on the Future of Media.

Milwaukee, Wisconsin

Thursday, September 7, 2006

6:30 pm

University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee

Helen Bader Concert Hall

Helene Zelazo Center for the Performing Arts

2419 East Kenwood Blvd.

Located between Prospect and Stowell on Kenwood, kitty-corner from the student union. For parking and accessibility, see:

<http://www.uwm.edu/map/map.pdf>

Presented by Free Press in partnership with the Department of Journalism and Mass Communication of the University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee, the Diederich College of Communication at Marquette University, AFSCME Council 48, Campaign Neighborhood - CFNBA, Citizen Action of Wisconsin, the Center for Media and Democracy, Common Cause in Wisconsin, Community Shares of Greater Milwaukee, the League of Women Voters of Wisconsin, MATA Community Media, Milwaukee LGBT Community Center, the Midwest States Center, NARAL Pro-Choice Wisconsin, Peace Action of Wisconsin, Sierra Club Great Waters Group, Voces de la Frontera, Wisconsin Democracy Campaign, Wisconsin State AFL-CIO

For more information, or to find out how your organization can get involved, contact Amanda Ballantyne (amanda@freepress.net) or visit www.freepress.net/future